Geography

- To know that volcanoes are located all around the world. (Locational Geography)
- To know how volcanoes are formed and how they are structured. (Physical Geography)
- To know that volcanoes erupt when tectonic plates move towards each other or through hot spots in the Earth's crust. (Physical Geography)
- To know the positive and negative impacts of volcanic eruptions. (Physical Geography and Human Geography)

Science

Light

 To know that light travels in straight lines from light sources to our eyes and from light sources to objects and then to our eyes

To know that mirrors reflect light and can help us see objects

To know how shadows are formed

Literacy

- Spelling, punctuation and grammar
- Playscripts
- Explanation text about the structures of volcanoes

This term we will be studying Volcanoes

RE - Humanism

PE- Handball and tag-rugby

PSHE- Rights and Responsibilities

Maths

- To practise and use multiplication tables (up to 12×12).
- Fractions
- Measurement

Art

Hokusai - Printing and landscapes

- To know about the work of Hokusai and where he originated from.
- To know about the artist Katsushika Hokusai.
- To know about the 36 Views of Mount
 Fuji and to create my own version of The Great Wave.
- To know how to use art books to plan a piece of work and to experiment with designs for printing, remembering to include the main features and style Hokusai used in his work.
- To know how to use the lino printing technique to replicate the style of Hokusai.
- To know how to use a range of mediums effectively.
- To know how to evaluate my own work.